- 5. HR 2647 FY 2010 Defense Authorization/Hate Crimes/Motion to Instruct. Forbes (R-VA) motion to instruct conferees to disagree with Senate provisions that would extend federal hate crimes laws to cover gender identity, sexual orientation or disability. Rejected 178-234; 10/06/09. Senate provisions were included in the Conference Report.
- 6. HR 3962 Health Care Overhaul/Abortion Funding Ban. Stupak (D-MI) amendment that would bar the use of federal - funds authorized in the bill to pay for abortion or to cover the costs of any health plan that includes abortion coverage, unless the pregnancy is the result of rape or incest or would endanger the woman's life. Individuals with subsidized policies who want abortion coverage would have to purchase it separately, using their own money. Adopted 240-194; 11/07/09.

- 7. HR 3962 Health Care Overhaul/Passage. Bill that would overhaul the nation's health insurance system and require most individuals to buy health insurance by 2013. It would establish a federal health insurance exchange, including a government-run "public option," to allow individuals without coverage to purchase insurance. The bill would bar the use of federal funds to provide abortions, except in cases of rape or incest or if the woman's life is in danger. Insurance companies could not deny or reduce coverage based on preexisting conditions. Passed 220-215; 11/07/09.
- 8. HR 4154 Estate Tax Extension/Passage. Bill that would make permanent the current estate and gift tax levels, which set a 45% top tax rate and a $3.5 million per person exemption amount from the tax. Passed 225-200; 12/3/09. (Language was incorporated to add statutory pay-as-you-go rules that would require most new mandatory spending and tax cuts to be offset.)
- 9. HR 4173 The Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2009. Bill that would overhaul federal regulation of the financial services industry. It would establish a process for dissolving failing financial institutions that pose risks to the entire financial system and create a Consumer Financial Protection Agency. Passed 223-202; 12/11/09.
- 10. HR 2194 Iran Sanctions/Passage. Berman (D-CA) motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill that would impose sanctions against companies that supply Iran with, or support its domestic production of gasoline and other refined petroleum products. Motion agreed to 412-12; 12/15/09. A 2/3 majority of those present and voting (283 in this case) is required for passage under suspension of the rules.

ABOUT THIS VOTER GUIDE

This is Volume VIII, Number 2 of the Jewish Community Voter Guide, published twice a year by the JAC Education Foundation. The Voter Guide is for informational purposes only and is not intended to influence the outcome of any election.

The JAC Education Foundation does not advocate the election or defeat of any candidate and does not endorse any political party. The information in this Voter Guide is provided as a resource to help you understand the issues before the 111th Congress, to communicate your opinions to elected officials on these issues, and to make you an informed participant in the political process.

ABOUT THE JAC EDUCATION FOUNDATION

The JAC Education Foundation was formed to educate and engage the Jewish community in electoral politics and issues of Jewish concern. The Jewish community is no longer immune to the apathy and ignorance that affect the nation as a whole. We cannot take elections for granted: we must educate ourselves, register and vote, and urge others to do the same.

The JAC Education Foundation seeks to increase political involvement through knowledge of:

- · how to be an effective advocate
- · which legislative issues are important
- · what Congressional action has been taken

ABOUT THE CONGRESSIONAL INDEX

This is a record of how each member of the United States Congress voted on issues of concern to American Jewry as identified by the JAC Education Foundation in consultation with recognized authorities who monitor these issues. Read the vote descriptions. Examine the Congressional index to learn how members of Congress voted. These votes indicate where members of Congress stand on key issues.

HOW LAWS ARE MADE

Laws may be initiated in either chamber of Congress, the House of Representatives or the Senate. As the majority of laws originate in the House of Representatives, this summary will focus principally on the procedure in that body.

- I. When a Representative has an idea for a new law, s/he becomes the sponsor of that bill and introduces it by giving it to the clerk of the House or by placing it in a box, called the hopper. The clerk assigns a legislative number to the bill, with H.R. for bills introduced in the House and S. for bills introduced in the Senate. The Government Printing Office (GPO) then prints the bill and distributes copies to each representative.
- 2. Next, the bill is assigned to a committee (the House has 22 standing committees, each with jurisdiction over bills in certain areas) by the Speaker of the House so that it can be studied.

The standing committee (or often a subcommittee) studies the bill and hears testimony from experts and people interested in the bill. The committee then may release the bill with a recommendation to pass it, or revise the bill and release it, or lay it aside so that the House cannot vote on it. Releasing the bill is called reporting it out, while laying it aside is called tabling.

- 3. If the bill is released, it then goes on a calendar (a list of bills awaiting action). Here the House Rules Committee may call for the bill to be voted on quickly, limit the debate, or limit or prohibit amendments. Undisputed bills may be passed by unanimous consent, or by a two-thirds vote if members agree to suspend the rules.
- 4. The bill now goes to the floor of the House for consideration and begins with a complete reading of the bill (sometimes this is the only complete reading). A third reading (title only) occurs after any amendments have been added. If the bill passes by simple majority (218 of 435), the bill moves to the Senate.
- 5. In order to be introduced in the Senate, a senator must be recognized by the Presiding Officer and announce the introduction of the bill. Sometimes, when a bill has passed in one house, it becomes known as an act; however, this term usually means a bill that has been passed by both houses and becomes law.
- 6. Just as in the House, the bill then is assigned to a committee. It is assigned to one of the Senate's 16 standing committees by the Presiding Officer. The Senate committee studies and either releases or tables the bill just like the House standing committee.
- 7. Once released, the bill goes to the Senate floor for consideration. Bills are voted on in the Senate based on the order they come from the committee; however, an urgent bill may be pushed ahead by leaders of the majority party. When the Senate considers the bill, they can vote on it indefinitely. When there is no more debate, the bill is voted on. A simple majority (51 of 100) passes the bill.
- 8. The bill now moves onto a conference committee, which is made up of members from each chamber. The committee works out any differences between the House and Senate versions of the bill. The revised bill is sent back to both the House and Senate for their final approval. Once approved, the bill is printed by the Government Printing Office (GPO) in a process called enrolling. The clerk from the introducing chamber certifies the final version.
- 9. The enrolled bill is now signed by the Speaker of the House and then the Vice President. Finally, it is sent for presidential consideration. The President has 10 days to sign or veto the enrolled bill. If the President vetoes the bill, it can still become a law if two-thirds of the Senate and two-thirds of the House then vote in favor of the bill.
